Terms of sale.

1. Each purchaser, immediately after a lot has been knocked down to him, pay as earnest money a sum of rupees five and sign his name opposite the number and specification of the lot in a book provided for the purpose. Such payment shall be held as admission on his part of having bought the lot and accepted the terms of sale.

2. After the sale, the purchaser of each lot is required to pay one-fourth of the sale amount into the nearest Treasury within five days from the date of sale, failing which the lot will be resold at the risk of the purchaser, who shall be required to make good any loss on resale, but shall not participate in any profit thereof. The amount due by each defaulter will be recovered as a revenue demand.

3. The balance of the purchase money shall be paid within thirty days from the date of sale, failing which the earnest and deposit moneys already paid in shall be forfeited to Government and the timber not paid for resold at the risk of the purchaser as mentioned in para 2 above.

4. No timber can be removed by any purchaser until it has been paid for in full and until a license to remove is obtained for it.

5. If timber is left in the wood-yard unremoved longer than ninety days from the date of sale, the purchaser will be required to pay wood-yard rent at Rs. 6 per cent per annum on the purchase money from the date of sale.
